PHOENIX MAN SENTENCED IN TUCSON ON CHILD PORNOGRAPHY CHARGES

TUCSON, Ariz.– Clinton M. Lewis, 34, of Phoenix, Ariz. was sentenced here on Tuesday, August 8, 2006 by U.S. District Judge David C. Bury to 48 months in prison to be followed by supervised release for the remainder of his life with a number of conditions, including a requirement that Lewis register as a sex offender. Lewis pleaded guilty on March 20, 2006, to Possession of Child Pornography.

Authorities were alerted that a computer account which Lewis had been using was sharing child pornography through a file sharing program called “peer-to-peer.” The possession charges stemmed from the recovery of child pornography from a computer and computer disks seized upon the execution of a federal search warrant on September 9, 2004. A forensic review of the computer and computer disks seized on that day resulted in the recovery of over a hundred images and movies depicting children engaged in sexually explicit conduct, including children under the age of 12.

The investigation preceding the indictment was conducted by the Federal Bureau of Investigations. The prosecution was handled by Judson T. Mihok, Assistant U.S. Attorney, District of Arizona, Tucson, Ariz.
